Communion – not just for Sundays...

Did you know that your church offers communion by request during the week too?

This is great for those times you travel, but also for those who work on the weekends. We are more than happy to offer this on a need basis. Please call the church office to schedule, 507 423 5100.

Invitation to Share Your Talents in Worship

We would love to hear you sing or play your instrument in worship this summer! Which Sunday will work for you?!

Please let Gwen Arneson know of your interest or willingness to share your talents with the congregation during a worship service in the coming weeks!

The sanctuary will be dressed in red – perhaps you will want to be, as well? For what is and what will yet be, we give thanks for the work of God's Holy Spirit!

Baptism, March 17

Recharge Your Spiritual Battery

So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. Genesis 2:3

As we know in Minnesota, warm sunny days are precious (especially this year so far). We are excited to get outside into God's creation and get our hands dirty in gardening and doing some yard work. Cabins, family vacations, and other activities soon will call us. It seems like the whole pace of life changes during the summer months, and we take some extra time to relax, grill out, and sit on the deck to watch the birds.

At church, the pace changes as well. Student programming such as Mission Possible and Confirmation take a hiatus for the summer months. The choir take a well-deserved break. The schedule just gets lighter. One could think that summer is a time to take a vacation from church. It is time to rest and relax – a whole hearted yes should resound – but don't forget to recharge your spiritual battery over these summer months.

Worship is where we recharge those spiritual batteries and reconnect with our community of faith. Weekly worship is so important that in the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:8) God commanded us to devote one day a week to sabbath – a time for worship and rest. God knows better than we do what is good for us, and God gave us this instruction so that we would be all well and able to care for one another. Thankfully God does not go on vacation in the summer!

If you travel out of town for some weekends, find another church worship experience. Bring back their bulletin for this interested pastor, and share with me your experiences. May you find time for some extra Sabbath this summer and may you give God priority in your life – during the summer and every day of your life.

Blessings,

Pastor Janel

Thank You for Your Part in Our Shared Ministry

There are so very many people of all ages in this faith community who steadily, faithfully, and persistently contribute in a variety of ways to the ministry of Christ Lutheran. Some work at tasks that will never be known by others; some have a more visible role.

These means of serving God and neighbor are not done for personal glory, but rather, as our humble response to the amazing love of God shown through Jesus Christ to us. Those of you who take on various responsibilities in this congregation and out in the community most often do it with deep commitment and joy, even when done in quiet and publicly unrecognized ways.

We are grateful for you! Your work does not go unnoticed or unappreciated!

Perhaps these words of Jesus from Matthew 6: 1-6 (paraphrased by Eugene Peterson in The Message) are good reminders for us to hear once again:

“Be especially careful when you are trying to be good so that you don’t make a performance out of it. It might be good theater, but the God who made you won’t be applauding.

When you do something for someone else, don’t call attention to yourself. You’ve seen them in action, I’m sure – ‘playactors’ I call them – treating prayer meeting and street corner alike as a stage, acting compassionate as long as someone is watching, playing to the crowds. They get applause, true, but that’s all they get. When you help someone out, don’t think about how it looks. Just do it – quietly and unobtrusively. That is the way your God, who conceived you in love, working behind the scenes, helps you out.

And when you come before God, don’t turn that into a theatrical production either. All these people making a regular show out of their prayers, hoping for stardom! Do you think God sits in a box seat?

Here’s what I want you to do: Find a quiet, secluded place so you won’t be tempted to role-play before God. Just be there as simply and honestly as you can manage. The focus will shift from you to God, and you will begin to sense his grace.”

Thank you for your part in the ministry that we share as a part of God’s mission given to us.

Churchwide Assembly News

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America will gather at its fifteenth Churchwide Assembly in Milwaukee from August 5-10 under the theme, “We Are Church.”

At this Assembly, a Presiding Bishop and the Secretary of the ELCA will be elected. Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton has indicated she is available to continue to serve. Secretary Boerger has indicated he will not be available to continue to serve in his role. In addition, the Assembly will:

- Hear reports and review the work of Churchwide officers, leaders and units;
- Receive and consider proposals from synod assemblies;
- Elect officers, board members and other leaders as specified by the constitution or bylaws;
- Establish ELCA Churchwide policy;
- Worship together;
- Adopt a budget; and
- Conduct other business related to the ELCA Churchwide organization.

As we all prepare for the ELCA Churchwide Assembly, we remember that it is a process of communal spiritual discernment to bring about God’s will for God’s people. Together, we will worship, pray, engage in Bible study, deliberate and conduct business in plenary sessions.

When members of the Assembly participate in and make decisions about the mission and ministry of the ELCA: We are church. We are Lutheran. We are church together. We are church for the sake of the world.

Pastor Janel will be attending as a voting member from the Prairie Conference of the SWMN Synod. Gwen Arneson will be attending as a voting member as the Vice President of the SWMN Synod.

New cook stoves make a difference

Before connecting with the Tripti project, Puran Bihari and his family of five spent a great deal of time searching for and collecting firewood in their village just so they could cook their daily meals.

It was especially difficult during the rainy season in central India, since rain-drenched logs make starting a fire difficult. Moreover, the smoke the Bihari family's stove emitted made it hard for them to breathe and left blackened deposits on the walls of their home.

Enter Vishal Jawakar, a field worker for the Tripti project, a ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Madhya Pradesh serving families who are food insecure and malnourished. A grant from ELCA World Hunger helps support this work.

Vishal gave the Bihari family a new, smokeless cookstove that runs on biopellets. He taught them about the health and economic benefits of using the cookstove. Using a cookstove is safer for the Bihari family, since it doesn't produce harmful smoke. The biopellets also make it easier for them to cook year-round.

Now the Bihari family can cook their daily meals in a healthier, more sustainable way.

"We are regularly using this stove for cooking our meals and for all other requirements. We find it better than using firewood. It produces minimal smoke once the pellets catch fire, and our food is cooked properly," says Puran, who adds that his family is grateful to the church for their support. Thanks to your gifts to ELCA World Hunger, families like the Biharis are looking towards a healthier, more food-secure future.
